ANDERSON LLOYD LAWYERS
GRADUATE AND SUMMER CLERK 2010

MAKE A FRESH START

RUBY MOYNIHAN, LAWYER

I summer clerked with Anderson Lloyd in 2007/2008 which gave me the opportunity to experience the firm's unique working environment. Following a great summer there I was offered a law clerk position in 2009 which gave me time to complete my Masters. The firm was incredibly supportive during my study including offering their expertise to my research on New Zealand's water law and providing flexibility with my working arrangements. I've now completed my first year as a lawyer in their Resource Management team working with great people who have a real passion for environmental issues and engaged in a variety of interesting work for top class clients.

WORK LIFE

We're a firm that believes in life outside of the office as well. After hours, many of our partners and staff are active in sports and community organisations. Living in the South Island means you will have access to all that this great place has to offer – from skiing and fishing to great day trips and theatre, and everything in between. We work hard weekdays – but come the weekend, you can take all the time you need to explore all that the South has to offer.

OUR PEOPLE

Our people give Anderson Lloyd the competitive edge to be the successful firm we are. We have recognised experts in all areas of our practice and committed teams who work collaboratively to consistently deliver exceptional advice and support to our clients. Our clients describe us as “personable”, “likeable”, “who go the extra mile” and are “easy to do business with”. Our people tell us they are valued, appreciated and encouraged to reach their potential. We pride ourselves on having a work environment that promotes excellence and delivers on flexibility and support to our people. And we celebrate our success through team lunches and dinners, Friday night drinks and participation at client and firm sponsored events. All part of the motivation for working here.

Anderson Lloyd is the largest South Island based law firm in New Zealand. While large and with a total workforce of 150 people, we still act and feel like a boutique firm. This is what we believe helps make us unique. It's time to decide what you will need from your employer to get your career started on the right track. We suggest you ask yourself some questions about what this means to you:

- Will you get significant one-on-one partner time?
- Will you get involved in ground-breaking legal work?
- Will you have a life outside of work?

CAREER WITH US

No factory mentality here. We're a go-ahead firm, with a strong culture, young ambitious partners and a close-knit feel. Our clients range from individuals to significant high profile national companies. We provide the people we work for with the best range of specialist legal services available in the South Island. This is evident in the awards we continue to receive. If you're ambitious, talented and ready to work hard, we can offer you plenty of challenges. We are proudly NZ's largest South-Island-based full service law firm, with stand-out teams that are nationally recognised. By choosing us, you'll have opportunities to gain experience and specialist understanding in one of our four key practice areas:

- Resource Management
- Corporate & Commercial
- Litigation
- Property and Personal Client Services

Some of our clients are household names; others are very successful but a little more understated (yes, that's very much a South Island thing).

BRYCE RAYNER, SUMMER CLERK

Summer clerking at Anderson Lloyd was an amazing way to spend my summer. The experience really gave me an idea of what it is like to work in a premier New Zealand law firm. I had the opportunity to undertake research and write opinions on a range of interesting and challenging matters, as well as attend client meetings, court and Christmas social events! The people at Anderson Lloyd truly made my time enjoyable – from the support staff to the partners, they were always happy to answer my questions and took the time to make me a part of the team. As a student, this is the most valuable career experience you can get.

BLAKE HOLGATE, LAWYER

Anderson Lloyd has provided me with the opportunity to work with and learn from those considered to be at the top of their respective fields. Working closely with this level of expertise has enabled me to become directly involved in projects of both regional and national significance. While being supplied with a wide variety of work I am continually being encouraged to identify those areas of practice that I am most passionate about. This allows the firm to help me to develop these areas into my own speciality. Above all I enjoy that I work with a great group of people who all share the type of values that is encouraged by the down to earth culture at Anderson Lloyd.

ALEXANDRA ISHERWOOD, LAWYER

I had heard good things about Anderson Lloyd before I applied for a legal graduate position with the firm. I wanted a sizeable firm so I could get exposure to good challenging work, yet at the same time I wanted a firm that had personality, good people and a friendly supportive culture. The more I learnt about them the more I saw a good fit. The application process was simple and I got to meet a lot of Anderson Lloyd people before I made my decision. I joined their commercial team in Christchurch in 2008 and haven't looked back. The people are friendly and the work is great. With interesting and exciting legal issues daily and working alongside the partners regularly, I really feel my career has got off to a great start.

SARAH JACOBS, SUMMER CLERK

Summer clerking with Anderson Lloyd in 2009 was fantastic. There was a comprehensive training programme to get us started and everyone was extremely helpful – always taking time to make sure I understood the task at hand and the surrounding background. The people are great – hard workers but very down to earth and relaxed. I thought I would be making coffees and filing all summer, but instead I spent my days going to court, drafting clauses and doing legal research on interesting topics. If you want the resources and perks that come with working at a large firm, and the close-knit, friendly feeling that comes with working for a small firm, then look into Anderson Lloyd.
